Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, in connection with this measure, some of the Senators have asked me to make an explanation. It is an extremely large bill and has so many ramifications it would require considerable time. BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 498, (House Bill No. 75) on third reading postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act conferring upon cities of the second class power to authorize the construction maintenance and use of overhead passageways across and of underground passageways beneath public highways by the owners or lessees of the abutting properties and ratifying and approving existing ordinances authorizing such underground and overhead passageways in said cities

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the Bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Affairs for a public hearing.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, this bill passed the House by a unanimous vote of all the members present. It is one of the bills of the Planning Commission of the City of Pittsburgh. It is a series of five bills presented in this session of the Legislature, all prepared for the purpose of improving the conditions of the City of Pittsburgh for the future planning and laying out and when ready to operate they will have the legislation to operate with. It will be under the control and supervision of our city council after the act is passed, and there is no real purpose for further postponing this bill or deferring action upon the bill, because if it did not emanate from the very best source, the city administration and the Planning Commission and controlling subjects pertaining to its government, I would not insist upon a vote today, but I do insist upon the bill being acted upon. It should either stand or fall on its merits, and, therefore, I am opposed to any further postponement or any further reference for hearing, or any other purpose.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, for my own information I would like to know whether there ever was a hearing on this bill.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I will have to refer the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, to the Chairman of the Committee on Municipal Affairs.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I would like to say to the members of this Senate that I wish to have this bill sent back to the Committee, because we never had a hearing on it and I believe any Senator who wants a hearing on any bill ought to be given that privilege. This is a House Bill and we have plenty of time to pass it, and if it meets with the approval of the Senators,—and I see no objection to this motion—this bill should be recommitted to the Committee, and I will be very glad to have a hearing on it. If you vote in favor of the motion everybody will have their day.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, allow himself to be interrogated?

Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, the Chairman of the Committee on Municipal Affairs, if he has had requests for a hearing before today?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, no, I must say that there was no request made up to date, but in further response to the Senator from Lackawanna; I beg to state that if any bill comes out of the Committee on Municipal Affairs and is on the Calendar, and there is any objection to any of those bills, it is always my pleasure to have those bills sent back to the committee and every protestant should have his fair say. I would, therefore, urge the Senate to pass this motion and recommit this bill to my committee and we will fix a meeting as early as possible and let the Senate have a fair say.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, when he decided to have a hearing on this bill?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, yesterday. I think several of the Senators are aware that the Calendar did not reach us last week at home. I had no opportunity to see this bill at all until I looked on the Calender. My position was prompted by the fact that two years ago——

The PRESIDENT. The Chair rules that the merits of the bill is not a question for debate at this time.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I am merely answering the question of Senator Davis.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator when he decided to have a hearing on this bill?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, last evening, when I looked at the Calendar.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I am perfectly satisfied to grant a hearing on any bill.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris.

The PRESIDENT Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, did we not last night postpone action on this bill at his request?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, we did.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, then why not debate the merits and demerits of the bill?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask that it be sent back to the Committee, and if the Chair will permit me I will explain. Mr. President, I call for the yeas and nays.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I second the call for the yeas and nays.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I wish to say a word of explanation to the Senate. I have no objection to requests for hearings coming from any Senator and I have always voted for hearings, but it seems to me to be a proconcerted movement simply, not for the purpose of developing this legislation, but for the purpose of annoying, and, therefore, not to break my rule in my eight years of service, now going on ten, I will agree to allow this bill to go back and I will ask the Senator who called it up that he also agree, and that we do not violate a tradition, or precedent and rule of this Senate, the courtesy which has heretofore been extended to the members of the Senate, simply on account of what in my judgment is nothing more than a trifling interruption in proper legislation.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I wish to say to the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, and to the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, that it is my wish that this bill be referred back to my committee and as early as possible, next Tuesday, we will have a hearing on it.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, withdraw his call for the yeas and nays?

Mr. Harris. Mr. President, I will.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Mansfield, withdraw his second?

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I will.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I want to say to this body that my purpose in opposing this bill was not in any manner or form to annoy anybody. Two years ago in the City of Pittsburgh an ordinance was presented to the city council for the purpose of empowering, or permitting property holders to build bridges from one building to another. Every property holder on Diamond street, from Grant street to Market, a distance of about five blocks from the heart of the city, protested against the granting of this ordinance. This morning I called up the people who are interested and talked with them. They told me they had a petition, and gave me the names on that petition—some of them the biggest property holders in Pittsburgh—and my only purpose was to give them an opportunity to present their case and not in any way at all to annoy anybody.

I might say too it is a selfish and personal interest of those interested in property on streets that this very bill refers to and I have the letters in my possession from people who are interested in this bill who do not want to have the authority to build a bridge.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I want to say to the Senate and I want to say to my colleague, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, that it was a simple matter that a request could have been made and all this time has been wasted and unnecessary discussion that has been carried on, the same purpose could have been carried out. All this might have been avoided by simply making a request of the Senate to recommit.

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 531, (House Bill No. 636), on third reading postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act authorizing council of cities of the second class to fix the salary of the mayor of said cities and providing the maximum amount thereof

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 531, (House Bill No. 636), entitled:

An Act authorizing council of cities of the second class to fix the salary of the mayor of said cities and providing the maximum amount thereof

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Thou eternal God, may the sunshine of this day drive all the clouds of hatred, and strife and sadness from our lives. Help us to walk in the light of this day, to seek that which is good, not only in the world, but in each other's lives, may we instead of trying to find all of the evil in the world, in our State, in each other's lives, that we may try to find that which is good and trustworthy and noble, and that we may publish abroad not the evil but the good. Help us to realize that no one in this world is utterly bad, that men are all down in their deepest souls attracted by that which is honest and noble and true. So today may Thy benediction be upon this House, upon this State, upon all the officers, the Governor, and all who are in authority to do the things which are fine and true, and then let us praise Thee for what they do which is right. We ask in Thy name. Amen.

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Hricko.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 500, entitled:

An Act to amend clause seven section six article one chapter seven of the act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and twelve) entitled "An act providing a system of government for boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" authorizing council of boroughs to elect a treasurer and secretary who may be members of the council

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lackawanna.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HRICKO. Mr. Speaker, with pleasure.

Mr. HAGMAIER. This bill is gotten up merely to meet a local condition, is it not?

Mr. HRICKO. It is not.

Mr. HAGMAIER. Do you know that the association of boroughs that met in Harrisburg a week ago opposed this bill by about seven hundred votes out of five hundred boroughs represented.

Mr. HRICKO. You have told me that.

Mr. HAGMAIER. Is there any pay connected with the salary of the borough treasurer in your bill?

Mr. HRICKO. No sir.

Mr. HAGMAIER. No salary?

Mr. HRICKO. No salary.

Mr. HAGMAIER. Do you propose to make a member of council one of that body?

Mr. HRICKO. Yes sir.

Mr. HAGMAIER. Without pay?

Mr. HRICKO. The bill does not stipulate whether he may receive any pay or not.

Mr. HAGMAIER. At the present time, the law is in the boroughs that council elects a bank or trust company, and they receive four per cent. on their sinking fund and two per cent. on their daily balances. In your case, who would get this money?

Mr. HRICKO. If council at this time has enough interest at heart to protect the borough to appoint a treasurer or some trust company or bank to derive four per cent. interest, I am positive that the council would have the same thing at heart even if it may elect him as treasurer or secretary.

Mr. HAGMAIER. There is nothing in the bill that makes it mandatory to make him turn that money over to the council?

Mr. HRICKO. Neither is it today.

Mr. HAGMAIER. At the present time according to the borough code council can act.

Mr. HRICKO. That is right, he may if the council authorizes that.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker, I want to ask for a vote against this bill for various reasons. In the act of 1915 there is a provision that no member of council has a right to receive any remuneration for being in that position. If I understand this bill it gives a member of council a chance to receive remuneration for being a member of council. This bill says a man may be elected treasurer or secretary of the borough. I happen to be the financial secretary of the Pennsylvania Association of Boroughs which has in its association over four hundred members in the State of Pennsylvania and I can truthfully say that eighty per cent. of the borough treasurers are banks or trust companies. In each borough the banks are paying two per cent. on the daily balances and four per cent. on the sinking fund. This bill paves the way for a member of council to be borough treasurer. He can go to his bank or any other bank and receive some money from that bank while under the act of 1915 a member of council is not allowed to receive any remuneration whatever. The gentleman has stated that a councilman would have the good of the borough at heart. I myself have sat on borough councils off and on for fifteen years and I will tell you there were some members who sat on some of them that I would not leave anything to, thinking they would have the good of the borough at heart, because it would not be good for the borough. I want to ask you to please vote the bill down.

Mr. HRICKO. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, with all due respect to my friends, they have asked me to postpone this bill at two different times, I readily agreed with them and gave them plenty of time, but up to this minute they have not shown me one thing that this bill would change in the present method of council government. This bill, ladies and gentlemen of the House, just merely gives the council the privilege to name a Secretary and Treasurer if they see fit. It doesn't necessarily say that they must elect one from among themselves. It just gives them the privilege of electing one from among themselves if they see fit. It proposes, as in some places, where council is obliged to pay a certain amount of money for a secretary or a treasurer, that council may elect one from among themselves and save that money. My good friend says that it will give an opportunity for certain members to get that four per cent. on the sinking fund and the two per cent. on the daily balances they are receiving today. I am positive there is nothing in this bill that will stop them from practicing this method. Therefore, the bill is for the good and welfare of the boroughs, and the only difference so far as I know on the part of those that are against it, is that the borough association went on record to oppose it, but up to this minute no one can show me where this bill will be contrary to the present method of council government, and I, therefore, ask you to vote in favor of this bill.

Mr. THOS. J. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Hricko.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Hricko permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HRICKO. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. THOS. J. BROWN. As a matter of fact with the law as it now stands it does not permit the appointment of others than members of council as secretaries and treasurers. Does this alter the law as a matter of fact?

Mr. HRICKO. I don't get that.

Mr. THOS. J. BROWN. Is it not a fact that the law as it now stands permits the appointment of treasurers and secretaries apart from members of the council.

Mr. HRICKO. Yes sir.

Mr. THOS. J. BROWN. What changes does this amendment make?

Mr. HRICKO. The only changes that this amendment makes, if council sees fit it may select one member from amongst themselves to sit as secretary or treasurer, but if they want to continue on in the present method this bill gives them that right.

Mr. THOS. J. BROWN. Do they not have that authority now?

Mr. HRICKO. No.

Mr. THOS. J. BROWN. It seems to me as this bill reads they would have.

Mr. HRICKO. No.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Hricko.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Hricko, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HRICKO. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SARIG. Who now fixes the salary of the secretary and treasurer.

Mr. HRICKO. Council.

Mr. SARIG. And under this bill the council would then fix the salary of one of its own members.

Mr. HRICKO. Yes, if they are allowed to collect.

On the question recurring,

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, gathered in the aisles and the back part of the house are three hundred and fifty representative citizens from the county of Delaware, citizens who are stalwart Republicans, citizens who help out at elections as they come and go, the third largest Republican majority in the State of Pennsylvania, being only exceeded by the county of Philadelphia and the county of Allegheny. They have come here to-day to pay their respects to one whom you have seen fit to elect Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives. I refer to the Hon. Eugene F. White. To you, Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I present this loyal delegation from the County of Delaware.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman from Delaware under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

I assure you it accords the Speaker a great deal of pleasure to have this fine representation of Delaware County citizens to pay tribute to one who must be one of your foremost citizens, and now the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, the Hon. Eugene F. White.

The CHIEF CLERK. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, and my friends from Delaware County, this is a difficult problem that you have cast upon me to-day. I know of no reason why I, who have been working all through my life in the humble ranks of the organization, should be so honored. I certainly can hardly find words to express my appreciation to my friends from Delaware County for what they have done for me this day, and I certainly hope that they will never rue or feel ashamed of what you ladies and gentlemen of the House have done in electing me to this office.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will now resume the calendar on Page 5, Bills on Third Reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 58, entitled:

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1048, entitled:

An Act requiring the State Dental Council and Examining Board to license and register certain persons to practice dentistry

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Burke, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. LOTZ. Will you kindly explain to the members of the House the purpose of this bill?

Mr. BURKE. Under the act of 1916 every dentist is compelled to register and this man failed to do so, and that is what this bill is for.

Mr. LOTZ. Why did he fail to register?

Mr. BURKE. He forgot to do it.

Mr. LOTZ. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to call the attention of the members of the House to the first section of this bill: "That any person who has been engaged in the practice of dentistry in this Commonwealth for a period of twenty years shall be licensed and registered by the State Dental Council and Examining Board." According to the law of the state a man cannot practice unless he is practicing illegally. Therefore, this refers to illegal practitioners. The second section provides: "All persons to whom a license shall be issued by the Dental Council and Examining Board under the provisions of this act shall be subject to the laws of this Commonwealth." If he is subject to the laws of the state after the passage of this act why is he not subject to the laws of the state now. This act is an absolute repealer of the existing dental law. We have in the state today our Dental Board for Licensure which requires a man or woman, to practice dentistry in the state of Pennsylvania, must be a college graduate and must have passed an examination before the Dental Council and Examining Board. This bill does not require even an examination. The bill on the face of it is ridiculous. Therefore I ask the members of this House to vote this bill down.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Burke, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. KAHLE. What object do you hope to gain with a bill of this kind; what class of people do you expect to be licensed by this bill?

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. This bill passed two years ago. Mr. Ludlow introduced the same sort of a bill, but the Governor would not sign it at that time. He said it was unconstitutional. They asked me to draw this bill up and that is all I know of this bill.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, take this bill from a health standpoint. As I understand it, the flunky who works around a dental shop, who sweeps and cleans the rooms, and possibly sometimes helps to repair a set of teeth, after a certain length of time he can come up and with two affidavits get a license to practice dentistry. Are we going to ignore the dental profession by slapping them in the face when they have raised their standards until today a young man who enters school from this time on must spend five years in a dental college. while here a young man without any education and without anything more than having worked in a office for a certain length of time can come in and take the same standard. From a health standpoint, how can we determine the diseases that arise today; we all know that the teeth have a great deal to do with the diseases of the human body, so far as pyorrhea is concerned and so far as rheumatism and things of this kind are concerned, and yet they want to take away all the high standards of the dental profession and pass it over by a couple affidavits and I think that that should not be permitted. I say it would be unjust and I think that we all should vote "no" on the bill.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. MILLAR. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1048, file folio 1599 be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. MATHEW PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideraation of House Bill No. 891, entitled:

An Act to repeal an act approved the twenty-fifth day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three (Pamphlet Laws forty-five) "An act to amend part of an act entitled 'An act to provide proper means of conveyance of persons injured in or about the mines to their homes'"

On the question.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have this postponed so we can look up the mine code and see if we have the protection in the mine code that this bill seeks to repeal. We are not familiar with these changes at this time, this one, and there is also another one on the next page

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, this is one of the several bills supported by the Pennsylvania Bar Association and prepared by the Legislative Reference Bureau. It is one of the repealers of 1883. Since that date laws have been passed supplying certain acts of 1883, but no definite repeal has been made of these certain 1883 acts. The acts which have been introduced by certain other members of this House, and have been passed, have all been studied by the representatives of the Legislative Reference Bureau, and we have substantial proof that all of them have been supplied by subsequent legislation. The acts sought to be repealed by this measure as well as by all the other measures on the third reading calendar today, sponsored by me, are bills of that nature. Specifically this act is supplied by the act of June 2, 1891, P. L. 176, which takes care of the proper means of conveyance of persons injured in or about the mines, to their homes. The other bill, relative to props and supports, is also supplied by the act of June 2, 1891, which is the general mine protection act.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker ,may I interrogate the sponsor of this bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Hall, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HALL. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. THOMAS. I would like to ask the gentleman from Dauphin if he can give the House a concise statement just now of the legislation there is on the books, if this is taken off, providing for this condition.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, specifically, I cannot give the definite legislation, but I have been advised by the Legislative Reference Bureau, by Mr. Fertig of that department, that this legislation is taken care of by a subsequent act, the section of which is article 11 of the act of June 2, 1891. Specifically, Mr. Thomas, I cannot tell you how the latter act repeals the first and takes care of the proposition in that act.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to assure myself that there was some provision made, or left standing on the statutes of the state regarding this condition, regarding the proper care of the conveyance to take the injured from the mines, because I met up with a condition last Fall, which led me to believe that these same conveyances which the law definitely says must be kept in a constant state of readiness and sanitary condition for the transfer of the injured men was not being observed. It was quite a surprise to meet up with one of those same conveyances loaded beyond the gunwales with cabbage, coming down out of a farming section right into the heart of a mining district. I was surprised to find that ambulance come in, and I made it my business to find out who the poor fellow was who was being conveyed to the hospital, and I found out instead of a crushed head there were a couple hundred heads of cabbage. That is one thing and another thing., we who live in the heart of the anthracite field and those of us who have had our emotions disturbed as we have seen this same conveyance stop in front of our own and the residences of our friends, we have become accustomed to these things in such a way as to know that there is something definitely of moment to the people of the community when we see these things, and we believe that if the law does not specifically say that the ambulance is not to be used as a mall wagon or a jitney bus, that I think we want to watch every law that has to do with the conveyance of injured men at the mines.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I feel somewhat hurt that the gentleman who has just spoken seems to feel that there is some reason on my part to have this bill passed because of the contents of the bill, or because of the contents of certain measures which succeed this. I wish to declare to him, as well as to the other members of this House, that there is no such intention back of this bill. This bill has been introduced at the request of the Legislative Reference Bureau, and rather than have the members of this House feel that I am trying to put something over on them, I am going to ask that this bill be postponed in a moment, and between now and the time I call it up, I will be able to explain to you just what the act of 1891 does and how that supercedes the former act. There is nothing here at all in the way of subterfuge, there is nothing here in the way of treachery on my part to pass this bill because of its contents but to eradicate from the statute books of this state certain obselete and dead laws that ought to be removed: I therefore, move Mr. Speaker, that House Bill No. 891, File Folio 1631, be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

EXPOSITION ON REPEALERS.

1885, July 7, P. L. 260. (MILK.)

This Act prohibits the adulteration of and traffic in impure and unwholesome milk in cities of the second and third classes. It was held to be supplied by the Act of March 24, 1909, P. L. 62, in "Reading City vs. Miller," 45 Sup. Ct. 28.

1887, May 28, P. L. 274, No. 161. (SCHOOLS.)

The Act relates to school districts in cities of the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh classes. This act has nothing upon which to operate as the statute dividing cities into such classes was declared unconstitutional in "Ayar's Appeal," 122 Pa. 266, and affirmed in "Meadville City vs. Dickson," 129 Pa. 1.

1883, June 4, P. L. 68, No. 60. (THIRD CLASS CITIES.)

This Act provides that the term of office of city controller of cities of the third class "shall begin on the first Monday of April next ensuing their election, and continue for the period now fixed by existing laws." It is supplied by the Constitutional amendments of 1909, and the Acts of March 2, 1911, P. L. 8 and June 27, 1913, P. L. 568.

1883, June 4, P. L. 74, No. 67. (SALARIES.)

Section 1 and 2. These sections fix the compensation of the judges of the several courts of common pleas, and the time when payable. It was supplied by the Acts of April 14, 1903, P. L. 175 and May 5, 1911, P. L. 182, and now by subsequents.

1883, June 13, P. L. 99. (CONVICTS.)

This Act authorizes the county commissioners to procure the discharge from prison of all persons confined therein, without proceedings under the insolvent laws. It is supplied by the Act of May 6, 1887, P. L. 86, and so considered by the Digests.

1883, May 25, P. L. 44. (SECOND CLASS CITIES.)

This Act requires physicians practicing in second class cities to make reports of certain contagious diseases to the Board of Health, and provides penalties for failure so to do. It is supplied by the Act of June 26, 1895, P. L. 350, Section 23. It is so considered by Pepper and Lewis's Digest, although not by Purdon.

1879, March 19, P. L. 9. (STREET RAILWAYS.)

This was an act passed attempting to operate the street railways in cities of the second and third classes. In "Weinman vs. Railway Company," 118 Pa. 192, it was held that this act was unconstitutional, being special legislation and violated Article III, section 7 of the Constitution. The act is not cited in either Digest.

1881, June 3, P. L. 47, No. 54. (BITUMINOUS MINES.)

This Act, amending Section 8 of the act of April 18, 1877, P. L. 61, authorizes the board of examiners to divide the bituminous coal counties into inspection districts. It is supplied by Article X, Section 5 of the Act of May 15, 1893, P. L. 52.

1883, May 25, P. L. 45. (MINES—ANTHRACITE.)

This Act is a supplement of the Act of May 10, 1881, P. L. 17, and provides for the proper means of conveyance of persons injured in or about the mines to their homes, and is supplied by the Act of June 2, 1891, P. L. 176.

1887, May 24, P. L. 204. (CITIES.)

This Act divides cities into seven classes and provides for the government of cities of each class. The act was held unconstitutional in "Ayar's Appeal," 122 Pa. 266, as involving any improper classification which was really was affirmed in "Meadville City vs. Dickson," 129 Pa. 1.

1887, May 17, P. L. 117. (CITIES.)

This Act authorizes the levy and collection of taxes in cities of the third, fourth, and fifth classes. The act is unconstitutional as being an improper classification and was so held in "Meadville vs. Dickson," 129 Pa. 1, under the ruling in "Ayar's Appeal," 122 Pa. 266.

1881, June 29, P. L. 147. (LABORERS.)

The Act secures to operatives and laborers engaged in and about coal mines, manufactories of iron and steel, and all other manufactories, the payment of their wages at regular intervals, and in lawful money of the United States. The first four sections of this act have been declared unconstitutional in "Godcharles & Co. vs. Wigeman," 113 Pa. 431. The fifth section of the act depends for its operation upon section 2, and therefor, falls with the remainder. It is pertinent to note that Pepper & Lewis cites Section 5 in their text, although it is omitted by Purdon.

Vol. 10. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 1927. No. 23

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, March 9, 1927.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Arthur H. James) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. W. Hall, offered the following prayer:

Our Father, we would not begin this day without coming to Thee, for, somehow or other, we believe in Thee and trust Thee; and when we pray we always feel better.

We thank Thee for the good men and women of the past, who have given to us this glorious heritage. Help us, then, to emulate their example, and grant that we may not by any act of ours prostitute these very sacred things that have come to us.

We thank Thee for the good men of today. We thank Thee for these men who have been so courteous and kind to us since we have been here. May the blessing of God rest upon them and their homes.

And we pray the blessing of God to rest upon every official of this great Commonwealth—the Governor of this State, who has so many grave questions to settle and problems to solve. We pray Thee that Thy spirit may be on him, and that the wisdom of God may rest on him. And may Thy blessing rest on the presiding officer of this body. May the riches of Thy grace be upon us all. Preserve our lives.

We thank Thee for health and strength. Bless our homes and loved ones. And we will give Thee the praise. In the name of Him who died for us. Amen.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 589, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 858) entitled "An act establishing a State employes' retirement system and creating a retirement board the administration thereof establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve excepting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process and providing penalties" as amended providing for the retirement of judges

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President, this bill has to do with the making available to judges of the Courts of Common Pleas throughout the State the pension and retirements fund. In the central portion of our State particularly, there has been much opposition on the part of the voters to the present pension law retiring judges on half pay at the end of the second term of ten years. This opinion of the voters has taken such hold on the people through there that it is almost impossible in some counties that a judge may be re-elected; and inasmuch as the situation concerning us is as it is, and inasmuch as judges often can serve better during a second term, some of the judges would like to see this Act passed so as to take away the argument against the second term for the judges.

What this bill does is, it permits the judges to be embraced in the Pennsylvania State Employes' Retirement System. It amends into the present Act—"And shall include all judges of the several courts of this Commonwealth whose salaries are paid by the Commonwealth." It excludes from the Act the words" Shall not include judges and it also."

In other words, when the Retirement Act was passed the judges were excluded. The Act permits them to become members of the Retirement Fund under the same terms as other employes of the State.

I had the pleasure yesterday of submitting this bill to one of the judges from Philadelphia, who happened to be visiting this body, and he thought it was a law which would be very good to have passed.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I am particularly interested in this bill, as I take great pride in the original Act —which has now over six thousand employes on the roll; and I remember very distinctly, when I was Chairman of the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities, we had a committee meeting and we tried at that time,—at least I tried, to get the judges in the same category as the employes, because after all no matter how high the judge may be he is still a State employe.

There were certain lawyers on the committee who were very tender hearted toward the judges, and made me take the judges out of the bill; and Mr. Baker came to me later and said he thought we could get the bill through without having the judges in.

This pension scheme is absolutely one hundred per cent. correct,—because I paid the actuary with my own money, and he is the best one in the United States.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Northumberland, Mr. Steele.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Northumberland, Mr. Steele, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I would like to know what this Act does with the present Pension Act.

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President, this Act does not do anything with the present pension Act. However, there is a present bill introduced, and now on the Calendar, that takes care of the present Pension Act. In this bill it provides that judges who now receive pensions shall be continued and retained on the pension roll of the State under the old Act, but it provides that the other sections of the Act shall be repealed. If this Act is passed, it will take the place of the other sections of the Act.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, if this Act would pass and not the other one, then we would have two methods of pensioning judges.

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President, that is true.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, would it not be best to repeal the present law first, before you pass a new one? Otherwise you would have two methods of pensioning.

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President, I would have no objection to that method,—or to allow this bill to go over on the postponed calender.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, it seems to me the proper way would be to provide for the whole system in the same bill,—where you create a new system and eliminate the old system. You may pass this Act and the other one may not pass. Then you will have two measures pensioning judges.

This bill could embody the principles which the Senator from Northumberland, Mr. Steele, says are embodied in the other bill. If he will guarantee the passage of the other bill, I will be glad to vote for this one.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, it will pass, all right.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I am afraid that when you come to repeal the other law you will come up against a stone wall, and the guarantee may mean more than the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, realizes.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, my understanding is that if a judge has served twenty years and he wants to run for a third term, this bill makes it optional whether he accepts the Judges Retirement or the State Employes' Retirement.

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President, it makes him come under the Retirement Fund of the State Employes'.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

We thank Thee for all of the fellowship of life, for everything which makes life, with its sadness and disappointments, nevertheless a thing of joy and of beauty and of pleasure. Be with the members of this House today; be with them in all that they do here as members of the Legislature. Be with each one personally, help us in times of sorrow and sickness, and go with each one today as they leave to go to their homes. QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker, this week end in the City of New York there will be a national intercollegiate Glee Club contest. During the last two weeks there was an elimination contest held in the City of Pittsburgh, open to all the colleges in the state of Pennsylvania. Many of them participated in that contest and as a result of that elimination the college selected in the state of Pennsylvania to represent this state at that national contest in the City of New York was Pennsylvania State College. Professor Richard Grant, we call him 'Dick' at home, together with his Glee Club, is on his way to New York city with a stopover in one of the eastern cities for a concert this afternoon. I know there is a great of musical ability and sentiment in this House of Representatives. I am sure we have all enjoyed the tenor from Delaware County and from Allegheny County mixed with the harmonious and sometimes inharmonious bass of Philadelphia County, and I am sure we would all be pleased to hear a little more harmony from your boys from these same counties. Professor Grant and his boys' Glee Club are in this House today, and I told Professor Grant I thought there was no place in all the state of Pennsylvania where they could come before an audience which is so able to determine whether or not they have the ability to represent this great state of ours than here in this House.

Mr. SPEAKER, I move you that the courtesy of the floor of this House be granted to Professor Grant and his Glee Club for ten or fifteen minutes.

Mr. STORER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

(Entertainment by Pennsylvania State College Glee Club).

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, will the sponsor of the bill please explain it?

Mr. WITHERSPOON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, at the request of the Department of Education, I introduced this bill and I personally know but a very little bit about it. As I understand the bill merely enables the department to advance funds that would later be coming to a district, with the understanding that that district will later to the refund of this amount of money that was advanced to the district.

Mr. SOWERS. The explanation is satisfactory, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1109, entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph nine of section one of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred fifty-eight) entitled "An act establishing a State employes' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve excepting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process and providing penalties"

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Goehring, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GOEHRING. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have an explanation of the purposes of the bill.

Mr. GOEHRING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill extends the time limit of the retirement to January 1, 1928. It seems that quite a few employes of the state, employes for many, many years, were either let out or requested to resign by the late administration, and this is merely to allow them to come back in case they are lucky enough to do it and give them a time limit to January 1, 1928.

Mr. SOWERS. In other words, it gives them a just credit.

Mr. GOEHRING. There is no question about that.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the author of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Goehring, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GOEHRING. Very glad to.

Mr. WALKER. We had a case recently in Clearfield County where one of the employes of the State Highway Department lost his life, and there seems to be no remuneration in that case for that particular person. Would this bill cover that particular case?

Mr. GOEHRING. No, it would not, it only applies where they are re-employed.

On the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 767, entitled:

An Act granting a pension to Levi Heddinger of the County of Berks

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHESTER A. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Eaches, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EACHES. I will.

Mr. CHESTER A. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I wish the gentleman from Berks would explain the purposes of or reasons for this bill.

Mr. EACHES. Mr. Speaker, during the reign of Governor Curtin a call was made for volunteers to protect the State of Pennsylvania. These men responded and were known as the Ninety Day Men. For some reason or other the United States government never would pension these men who not only served in Pennsylvania but who were taken as far south as the State of Florida. This man is now in the neighborhood of eighty-five years of age, and he feels that he has given his service to the State. He has no way of getting any employment and does not want to be a drain on his children or his grandchildren, and for that reason the bill is presented. A similar bill was presented under Governor Pennypacker. The bill passed the House and Senate, but as there was such a large number of those men at that time, Governor Pennypacker vetoed the bill.

Mr. CHESTER A. RHODES. Has the Commonwealth granted pensions to any other of the Ninety Day Men?

Mr. EACHES. I cannot answer that. The constitution of Pennsylvania shows that I am perfectly within my rights in presenting this bill, the reference being Page 829, Section 18.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Eaches, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. EACHES. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HAAS. Will the gentleman from Berks tell the House whether this volunteer ever got outside of the city of Reading?

Mr. EACHES. Yes, sir, he was taken as far south as the State of Florida in 1863.

Mr. HAAS. He was in service just thirty-five days, isn't that correct?

Mr. EACHES. No, they were in service ninety days, rather less than ninety days.

Mr. HAAS. The bill says that on the third day of July, 1863, they were mustered into service, and on the eleventh day of August, 1863, they were mustered out.

Mr. EACHES. Whatever the bill states is correct.

Mr. HAAS. Did he ever see any actual service?

Mr. EACHES. Oh yes.

Mr. HAAS. Did he fight in the defense of the Union?

Mr. EACHES. Yes, here is his discharge. Yes, he fought for the North.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I might say that at the time of the second invasion, Pennsylvania was being threatened by General Lee, these home guards were called into service. They were generally known as home guards, and did duty only in the State. The reason they were not pensioned is because they were not in the federal service, the national service, they were pressed into service at the time when General Lee was coming down the Shenandoah Valley and threatening Harrisburg here. These home guards, as I understand, were stationed between here and Carlisle for the express purpose of defending the capital of Pennsylvania against capture by Lee's Army. When Lee came north and approached this army of what we call the home guards, he turned east towards Wrightsville. They were simply here to do service for the State, and they were never mustered in as a part of the Federal army. That is the reason that they could not get a pension. In 1915 we passed a bill granting a state pension for all of them, not for any one individual, as I understand it, and the bill was vetoed by Governor Brumbaugh. In the past a number of these bills have been before the Legislature. Now it so happens that there is only one of them here and there and the result is that individual bills are introduced, of which this is one.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 312, entitled:

An act to amend section five hundred and forty-three of an act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" further regulating fire insurance rating bureaus

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I would like to say a few words on this bill. This is Senate Bill 312. There has been some correspondence on Senate Bill No. 312, from some of the sock companies. The are opposed to this bill, and you just cannot blame them for being opposed to it, because in the rating of insurance throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania they have had absolute control of this rating and admit into their rating bureau only stock companies The various mutual companies in the State have endeavored to become members of this rating bureau and have been refused admission for various and devious reasons, many of them having no sound value at all.

On this particular bill the Commissioner of Insurance approves of it, and I want to read to you his letter dated February 15th:

"I acknowledge receipt of the Act which is intended to regulate rating bureaus, and am in full acord with your thought in the matter."

That is his letter of February 15th; and on February 17th he wrote another letter, in which he said that he thought he shoud have more power than this act calls for.

I want to explain to the members of the Senate, if they haven't read this Act, just what it is. It is part of the Insurance Code, or an amendment to Section 543. Section 543 reads: "Membership of Rating Bureau Expenses. A rating bureau ma consist of one or more insurers, and when consisting of two or more insurers must admit to membership any authorized insurer applying therefor who shall gree to abide by the rules and regulations of such bureau."

The only addition we are making to it is this: That where an application is made by an insurance company, that is, a mutual company, to this rating bureau, and the rating bureau turns them down for any reason, that this insurer or this company can appeal to the Commissioner of Insurance to find out whether or not the rules and regulations laid down by the rating bureau are fair and reasonable. And then the Insurance Commissioner decides on this question, and if either the rating bureau or the applicant thinks that he is aggrieved, he can appeal to the Dauphin County Court, and the Court can decide which is right.

All the bill provides for is that the mutual companies shall have the same privileges as the stock companies. If refused that concession they can appeal to the Commissioner of Insurance, and if either side is dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner, they can appeal to Court and the Court can decide who is right.

That is nothing more than what every American citizen or every American institution of every kind is entitled to; and when the time comes when men who have power, such as the men in this rating bureau, are afraid of the light of court or they are afraid to put their propositions before one of our courts,—and the court in this particular case is that of Dauphin County—there must be a reason. I don't know particularly what their reason is, but I can guess, and that is that they have a monopoly which is controlled solely and wholly by stock insurance companies and they are going to maintain it if they can.

There is nothing in this Act that can hurt anybody in any company or in any organization that intends to play fair; and I say to you members of the Senate that when the time comes that any public institution in any form are afraid of letting their actions be aired in the court, then there must be something wrong, or there is something wrong in our system of government. And either they are wrong or they have lost confidence in our courts; and I don't believe any member of this Senate has lost confidence in our courts. There is nothing in this act than can hurt anybody, any company or any organization that intends to play fair.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I, for one, would like to play fair; but I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the Insurance Committee, the Senator from Berks, Mr. Norton.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Berks, Mr. Norton, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Berks, Mr. Norton, if he has received any communications in opposition to this bill; and if so, to what extent.

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, I have had a few.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Berks, Mr. Norton, if he thinks it is a good bill.

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, I do.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I would like to know if the rates of mutual companies are not based on the cost of insurance.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, the rates of which?

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, the rates of mutual companies. Are they not based on the cost of insurance?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I do not just understand what the Senator from Lawrence, Mr. Weingartner, means. I do not just know what he means by that.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I will put it in another way: Is it not true that mutual companies have the stockholding feature for each member of the company? and that the rate fixed is in lots of cases done by assessment, and depends upon the actual cost of insurance from year to year, which varies—goes up and goes down?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will answer that question by saying that to my estimation the only difference between the rating in the mutual companies and the rating in the stock companies is this: In the mutual companies if at the end of the year there is a profit they can rebate from those premiums to the members of the mutual companies, and that reduces their cost; while in the stock companies the stockholders get that profit. So it is as broad as it is long. If you want to be a stockholder in a stoc kcompany, you get dividends. If you want to be a stockholder in a mutual company, you get rebates. But somebody gets the profit in either form of company; it doesn't go up in smoke.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, the strictly mutual company that does not fix any rate for insurance but carries an insurance by assessment costs more from year to year—what business have they, a company that does not fix a rate and that is purely mutual, as all mutual companies, I believe, under the Act are intended to be—what business have the yof ascertaining the rates of old line companies that do fix rates—without any cost, and when it doesn't concern them?

I have some insurance in both lines of companies. The mutual companies in our community fix their rates entirely from year to year by assessment based on the losses of each year. You pay no premium. You pay it on assessment. The cost entirely depends on the amount of losses they have had for the year. I am at a loss to understand why that line of company wants to go into this kind of business.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I just want to say this: The insurance companies in Pennsylvania are working under a code, and that code was never intended to give a monopoly to stock companies; and if mutual insurance companies which are conducted in the State of Pennsylvania are conducted according to law, and if they are conducted according to law they comply with the law, and the law recognizes them; they are not foster children, they are part and parcel of the insurance business of Pennsylvania. And the stock companies who have put their own men on this board have just ostracized the other people. The insurance laws of Pennsylvania are for all business doing honest and legitimate business. Mutual companies are doing honest and legitimate business. They are recognized by the laws of Pennsylvania, and they cannot be outcast because of the fact that the stock companies have just made a monopoly of the business for their own benefit.

One man told me today, "You cannot blame the head of the rating bureau, because their secretary has been married to stock companies all his life and he does not know anything different." If he has been married all his life to stock companies, and does not know the difference between fairness and common decency, it is time we divorce him, and this is the place and the time to do it.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I know the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, is much better prepared on this subject than some other members of this Senate; and I want to plead ignorance, and I wish to ask him a question or two.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I should like to have the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, tell me who is the rating bureau.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, the rating bureau, I think, consists of three men at this time—a secretary, a president and another man. They are picked out by the stockholders. And this bureau fixes the rates for all insurance in the State of Pennsylvania. These three men are the board, and they have their assessors who go around and collect all the data and bring it in before this rating bureau; and if the information they bring in is satisfactory, that makes the rates on your insurance.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, throughout the State?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, throughout the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, then they have a subordinate office.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, they have a number of subordinate offices.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I know they have one in Pittsburgh.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, they have them all over the State.

Mr. LESLIE, Mr. President, I am going to agree with the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus. It is about time we should open up and let the people of Pennsylvania know that the rates charged by this rating bureau are exorbitant. We are threatened, in our municipality, that if we do not furnish proper facilities by the officers of the fire department, and facilities by the fire department to operate with, that our rates will go up. I have noted the fact, and this is true.

Another combination in our community have been subject to an investigation under certain Acts of the Legislature. And there have been no prosecutions. There has been an intimate relationship between close violation of the laws of this State and prosecution.

I never knew there was a rating bureau throughout the State, but I did know there was a rating bureau in Allegheny County and the City of Pittsburgh. Therefore, I am free to say that I want to open up the door and let the flood tide go through. If we are to be controlled by outside corporate interests as to what insurance we shall pay for the lives and the property of our people, it is time there should be some action.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, all that has been stated on this is all very well, but still it does not answer my question. In reply to the gentleman from Allegheny I might say that I do not see how in the world he is going to open the flood gates and change the rates and make this board any different by passing a bill that does not change the board.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I might reply that this bill does give the Insurance Commissioner the right to investigate all these matters; and that is what he is asking. He is given that right under the bill.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, further.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I would like to ask him if the real object of these mutual companies in having access to the information of the bureau is not to find out what its raest are without any obligation to observe the rates which they get by becoming members of the bureau?—information which costs the stock companies thousands of dollars, in maintaining bureaus and laboratories to get the information; and the only object of the mutual companies is to have their rates so that they can underwrite them. They want to become members, don't want to be excluded, but want a reservation in every one of their memberships, and that is that they do not want to live up to the rules of the bureau that sends them the rates.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, that is exactly the case now. What the mutual companies desire to do is to be admitted on the same ground and under the same conditions that the stock companies are, and this bill puts the matter directly up to the Insurance Commissioner. If a mutual company would endeavor to get into this Underwriters' Association without complying with its rules and regulations, and they brought it up to the Insurance Commissioner, he surely would not allow it in, because they are not complying with the rules; and that is what this amedment says: "All rules and regulations adopted by any rating bureau shall be reasonable and no such rule or regulation shall be adopted by any rating bureau which will unreasonably hamper or interfere with the lawful business of any insurer which is a member of or desires to become a member of such rating bureau All rules and regulations adopted by any rating bureau shall be sumbitted to and be approved by the Insurance Commissioner before the same shall be enforced."

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, does the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, mean that when they are mutual companies if they become members and have access to all information, that they mean to adopt the same rates that the stock companies have adopted?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I do.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, that they are going to live up to their rates?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, absolutely.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr, President, I think that they intend to get the information without any intention or obligation to adopt their rates.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I want to say to the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, that that has been the alibi and the excuse for many years. We had the medical board who fought the osteopaths. They fought them because they did not want them, but they finally had to take them in. They are partners now. That is what is going to happen now, they have to take the mutuals in. They will not let them in until they must and then they will become partners, the same as the people in the medical profession. The alopaths and homeopaths were not going to let the osteopaths in, but to-day they are considered possibly the best physicians in the country.

And the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 650, (House Bill No. 704), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the seventeenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 995) entitled "An act to provide for the appointment of assistant district attorneys in the several counties having over ninety thousand and less than seven hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants and fixing their salaries"

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 650, (House Bill No. 704), the bill just read, be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I would like to know the reason for the motion. In the first place this is a bill affecting counties of the fifth class. It will not affect the County of the Senator from Westmoreland at all. The bill was thoroughly understood in committee, and I would like to know the reason for recommitting.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I understand it affects counties of the third class and there is a clause there, I think, should be amended.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, as far as I understand it does nothing to any counties of the fifth class but increases the salary of the Assistant District Attorney from two thousand dollars to twenty-five hundred dollars, and certainly a salary of two thousand dollars for an Assistant District Attorney is a mere pittance. It increases the salary of the Assistant District Attorney from two thousand dollars to twenty-five hundred dollars in counties of the fifth class. The population is stated in the title, in the several counties having over ninety thousand and less than seven hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants." It only affects counties of the fifth class.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I think if there is a mistake in it then it ought to be corrected.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I know, but there is no reason for sending it back for that purpose. I see there is a typographical error in the title, that ought to be 150,000 insead of 750,000. Mr. President, I have no objection to the bill going over to amend the title, as I see there is a misprint in the title.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion. tion.

The motion was agreed to.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have approved and signed the following:

JOHN S. FISHER.

VETO OF SENATE BILL No. 114.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 10, 1927.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 114, entitled "An Act providing a method of ascertaining the opinion of the electors of the Commonwealth as to the desirability of ratifying the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States."

This bill provides a method by which the Legislature can ascertain the wishes of the electors with regard to the ratification of amendments to the Constitution of the United States. It provides that whenever an amendment to the United States Constitution is pending, the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall, by certificate to the county commissioners of the several counties, cause to be placed on the ballot to be used at the first general or municipal election occurring at least three months after Congress shall have proposed the amendment, the following question: "Is it desirable that the Legislature ratify the following proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States?"

Article V of the Federal Constitution provides that Congress, whenever two-thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments or on the application of the Legislatures of two-thirds of the several States shall call a Convention for proposing amendments, which in either case shall be valid to all intents and purposes when ratified by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the several States or by Convention in three-fourths of all the States.

The Method proposed by this bill is ineffective upon its face. It is without binding force, and would merely tend to produce confusion. It is an attempt by the State to modify the manner of amending the Federal Constitution by ascertaining the wishes of the people through a referendum. It overlooks the fact that the will of the people may be expressed by means of a Convention, as provided in the Constitution, if the Congress elects to adopt this mode of ratification.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, March 14, 1927.

The House met at 9:00 o'clock P. M.
The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Thou infinite and eternal God, grant that we this night may recognize Thee as the author of every good gift that comes to us in life; that everything that we enjoy, life and health and strength, come from Thee. May we as we go onward in life, meeting its trials and difficulties and disappointments, do so with a smiling face. Keep us from being sad or discouraged or disheartened or made pessimistic by anything. Help us to be optomistic, to believe in each other, to believe that those who are working for this State are trying to do their very best; to believe that the members of this Legislature are patriotic men and women honestly trying to do the things that are right, and the things that they believe to be just and true, and may those of us who are inclined to be critics drop our criticism and try to encourage, try to help, try to find the good in life instead of always digging in the garbage piles to find the things that are bad and nasty and disreputable. Help us to be true men and women, helping each other, and so may this Legislature be guided in everything that it seeks to do this week by lofty purpose. Be with the Speaker and members of the House, the employes, the pages, everyone here, and may we all be working for the good of the State that we all love. We ask in Thy name. Amen.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 426, file folio 1187, be recommitted to the Committee on Law and Order for the purpose of a Public Hearing.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the house agree to the motion?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there seems to be a prevailing opinion because of the motion which passed for the purpose of placing this bill on calendar and this subsequent the motion made to send this bill back into the law and order committee that there is an endeavor to paint this bill as a wet and dry issue. I wish the members of this House would read the bill carefully and they would find out that its only purpose is to make a legal procedure on search warrants and to have them handled efficiently and competently and that when a warrant has been issued that at least it would be served within five days and the return would be made. Its purpose is to prevent blackmail and extortion and to place search warrants in the hands of able, capable and efficient men. I would ask the members of this House to vote this motion down. It is not made in good faith. The purpose of the motion is to locate sight of the real purpose of the bill. Vote the motion down and let us vote on the bill and let the bill get the full and fair consideration it deserves and do not attempt to make a wet and dry issue of a measure that is really a bill of merit. I ask you again to vote this motion down.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think that the motion is rightly put. I think that if this bill as it is before the House has been made a wet and dry issue, it is not the friends of the enforcement program who have so raised the question at issue. I believe that those of us who have stood firmly by the things of the 18th amendment that we have certain rights and certain privileges. The motion as it was originally presented instead of being something in the nature of a subterfuge behind which certain weak men could hide, it has been made everything other than that, and it has been a flat-footed presentation of the wet and dry issue of this House. The friends of Anti-Prohibition work, they are the ones who have raised the issue and I believe that the proper committee for the consideration of that question is the committee that has been suggested to handle the question as it has evolved itself into an issue before this body of intelligent people. I favor the motion as made by the gentleman from Armstrong.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think that the motion of the gentleman from Armstrong is impertinent, inasmuch as the Law and Order Committee wants to assume and take over the functions of the House.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has no right to question my motive as a member of this House. I made that motion in good faith and I stand on it.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will refrain from any personalities in discussing the issue.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, irrespective of the fact of what the motive is that lay behind the making of the motion the majority of this House has spoken in no uncertain terms, by a vote of 108 to 92, to place the bill on the calendar and I think the majority members of this House are the parent body and not the committee, and I think the bill should be considered at this time.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Armstrong.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman fom Armstrong, Mr. Armstrong, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WITKIN. I wish to ask the gentleman from Armstrong, if when this bill was originally introduced he had notice of it and read the bill and was familiar with its contents; is that correct?

Mr. ARMSTRONG. That is correct.

Mr. WITKIN. Being familiar with the contents of the bill did the gentleman from Armstrong at any time consider it necessary or expedient to ask for a hearing prior to the time the bill was reported out of the committee.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. No, I did not, personally.

Mr. WITKIN. May I ask the gentleman from Armstrong what there is in the bill as it now appears different from what was in the bill when it originally appeared in committee that moves him to ask for a hearing on this bill.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. My reason is that a number of people have asked why Philadelphia alone should ask for this change in the law, when there are no other requests from an other parts of the State and for that reason I would like to have a hearing so that we might have the sponsor of the bill tell us just what the conditions are in that city that do not obtain in other cities of the State.

Mr. WITKIN. It is not a fact that it refers not alone to the city of Philadelphia but to the state at large, and weren't you familiar with those facts before?

Mr. ARMSTRONG. That is the reason I ask for a hearing, because it does apply to the State at large but no one outside of the city of Philadelphia seems to want it.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, at this time I do not think it would be necessary to argue the merits of this bill, and ladies and gentlemen of the House, it seems to me that it is not the proper procedure to refer this bill to the Committee on Law and Order. I take it that it is not the proper procedure, after a bill has been before this House and after it has come up for reading in accord with the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, and after notice has been given and there is no request ever made for a hearing, that after this House voted to put this bill back on the calendar, and I say it respectfully, that I take it that it comes with poor grace to ask at this time to send this bill back to the committee on Law and Order. We should vote on it one way or another. Why should we put it off the day; why not vote on it now. I ask the members to vote down this motion to send this bill to a committee the action of which committee we can easily assume. Therefore, I ask you all to vote down this motion. Let us vote on the bill. Let us meet the issue squarely, and let us not be afraid to stand on our rights.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill before you is an exact duplicate of a bill that was presented in the session of 1925 and passed by an overwhelming majority of this House. The bill before you was referred to the Judiciary Special Committee and a sub-committee was appointed to study the bill and to take it and compare it with the United States government law on the subject and that sub-committee reported to the Judiciary Special committee that the bill was an exact copy of the law of the United States as far as it could be made applicable to Pennsylvania. The bill was in Judiciary Special Committee. No request was ever made by anyone for a hearing. No body ever made any objection to it until somebody tried to interject into the bill a wet and dry issue. This bill does not apply to liquor. This bill applies to every object that can be made the object of a search warrant. This bill covers the whole state. This bill does for Pennsylvania what the United States Government has done for the United States Citizens. This bill simply means that in Pennsylvania prior to the 18th amendment we had little occasion to issue search warrants; it means that in the past we never searched people's homes; we never ran into peoples' homes; we never broke up their furniture; we never destroyed their homes in the effort to find things. This bill gives to the landlord————

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I would suggest that the gentleman speak on the motion, not on the bill at this time,

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is confining himself to the motion because describing the action on the bill in the committee.

Mr. SOWERS. The committee considered the bill from every angle. The committee found that search warrants were being issued by thousands. The committee found that one Magistrate had issued in a little over a year something over six thousand warrants and some three thousand of them could not be found. The committee found on investigation that large sums of money were being blackmailed from the people of Pennsylvania through the abuse of warrants. The committee in consideration of this bill found that today instead of search warrants being used for lawful and proper purposes that they were being used as instruments of tyranny and extortion. Your committee thought it was the proper time for Pennsylvania to throw some safe-guard around the homes in Pennsylvania. Your commitee in its consideration of the bill thought that the landlord whose house was rented to a tenant and a search warrant was issued against the tenant that the landlord should have some remedy and some right. Your committee considered it from every angle and I ask the members of this House to vote down this resolution when holding another investigation can only result in finding that the United States government law that protects you today under the United States government is duplicated in this bill and if those of the United States who are citizens are entitled to that protection, let us protect Pennsylvania likewise.

Mr. F. N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House not being learned in the law, I am learning something from my friend. I didn't know the United States was protecting or issuing search warrants for chicken thieves, dope fiends and common burglars, and so forth. Now, after the smoke screen has all blown away there is not a person in this House, but what knows that this is a direct bang at the liquor law, or of the search warrant and the fourteen acts of assembly upon the statute books of Pennsylvania which provide for search and seizure, this is the only one they are after and we all know it without blowing any more smoke.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the motion?
It was not agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION TO VOTE.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 817, file folio 1323, entitled:

An Act to amend article five section three clause four of an act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred sixty-eight) entitled "An act providing for the incorporation regulation and government of cities of the third class regulating nomination and election of municipal officers therein and repealing consolidating and extending existing laws in relation thereof" as amended by increasing the amount of license tax which cities may collect and providing for the levying and collection of a license tax upon the business transacted at each separate place of business or establishment was defeated on final passage on March 8, 1927 be reconsidered.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HORN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, while I am not the sponsor of this bill, I was a partner to the bill having offered an amendment, and I believe the members voting last week against the bill did so in error, not knowing the contents of the bill. The bill applies to the license tax in third class cities, and it affects only third class cities. The bill is to correct a condition in third class cities to extend the present maximum license in third class cities the license is one hundred dollars. The bill as amended provided a maximum of two hundred license fee. It also provides that the license shall be charged for each store licensed under the ordinance of the city. Recently in a decision of the courts on an appeal taken by the American Stores, the court ruled that one license would cover every store operated by a concern. I want to quote one third class city where the chain stores have twelve stores, paying heretofore a license in that city of $585.00. When the court's decision was announced in this particular city, an appeal was taken to the city council, and acting under the advice of the city solicitor the city was obliged to give one license to the chain stores doing an annual business of $820,000, a year, at a price based upon the volume of business. The chain stores in many municipalities do no banking business at home, sending their funds to the main office from which all bills are paid. They do nothing for the city in any of its financial enterprises. They require police protection, fire protection, garbage collection, and all different numbers of stores pay at license figure than they are paying under the ordinance. It is felt that it is only fair and just that a license tax be paid on each store and it is not the intentional as some of the members thought last week to charge two hundred dollars for every store. That is a maximum figure. In addition to this, since the act was passed in 1913 in a spirit of so called enterprise the department stores have taken over one, two, three, four and five other buildings into one store, doing a business of a million dollars or over and paying no more license fees than those who do two hundred thousand worth of business. We ask the members of the first and second class cities, the members of the rural districts to give the cities of the third class a chance to exact a fair and honest license fee for its own treasury, for the protection of busines of local business men and for the good of the community. I ask the members this week to vote aye on the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. Speaker, I announced last Monday evening that tomorrow night is the night set for the dinner of the Legislative Sons of Saint Patrick, at the Penn-Harris Hotel, I also announced last Monday evening that I would not want to be held responsible in case any of the members did not get their tickets. The tickets are going from my hands very rapidly and I would not like to see any member disappointed in receiving a ticket. I have been handed a package here addressed to the chairman of the Legislative Sons of Saint Patrick. I don't know what is in the package but I am going to open it for your consideration and see what is in it. It seems to me it refers to the dinner tomorrow night. Just as I thought, it does. It is an Irish Snake. Driving the snakes out of—I don't know where. I want to say to you that if you want your tickets you had better get them as quickly as possible, as I will not be responsible if you don't come hire to the desk before tomorrow noon.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under the question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Legislative Journal.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Staudenmeier

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 478, entitled

An Act to repeal an act approved the tenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one (Pamphlet Laws seventeen) entitled "An act to provide proper means of conveyance of persons injured in or about the mines to their homes"

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill you are about to vote upon is on page 5, bills on final passage postponed, House Bill No. 478, file folio 1637. It is one of a series of repealers introduced by Messrs. Whitehouse, Hall, Sowers and myself. This bill when it was on the calendar last Wednesday in connection with several bills which bore the name of Mr. Hall of Dauphin County, caused considerable doubt and anxiety in the minds of some of the members of the anthracite region. I see no reason why any member from the anthracite region should have any doubt as to the integrity, honesty, or sincerity of Messrs. Whitehouse, Hall, Sowers and myself. The least that can be done with these repealers, if any man has any doubt, or if any member has any doubt, is to go to the member and ask what the repealer intends to do. Publicity such as was given the action of some of the members in this House last Wednesday is entirely uncalled for, is injurious to the member introducing the bill especially if he does so in good faith and at the request of the Bar Association of Pennsylvania. Last Tuesday I happened to ask certain of the representatives of the United Mine Workers as to their objection to one of these bills, and I took it up with Mr. Devers, their attorney, and he told me they had no objection at all, it was a clear mis-understanding. This bill seeks to repeal the act which was passed in 1881. To show how futile and unnecessary it is to have this bill remain upon the calendar, the whole thing that the act states is that at every colliery there must be an ambulance or two stretchers. In 1891, ten years subsequent to that, there was a bill passed that at every colliery there must be an ambulance and two stretchers, not "or". Now, if anybody is to gain anything it is the United Mine workers in the repeal of this act of 1881 because the act of 1881 states, and I repeat again that they must have an ambulance or two stretchers. Ten years subsequent to that bill as passed by the Pennsylvania Legislature the act states that they must have an ambulance and two stretchers. Now they have no objection to these repealers. The least that can be done, members of the House, in fairness to the members who introduced these bills, before you get up on the floor of this House and attack a bill, is to come to the member and he will be glad to give you an exposition and all the law and reasons and the whys and wherefores for the bill.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have no desire nor have I any intention to raise a question with the gentleman that spoke, but I will say, Mr. Speaker, that we were perfectly within our rights to raise the question as it was raised last week. We were only asking for the information which has been so generously given to-night and I see no reason for the attitude that the gentleman from Schuylkill has assumed tonight in giving us this elucidation on the question. It is not our business to inquire into the merits of everything that is proposed, we are only asking for information that will guarantee to us a safeguard so that the people of our district will not be denied all that is coming to them. In regard to the representative of the mine workers of America, we do not regard them as being the solons, as being the law makers, we regard them for what they are worth and for the functions they fulfill while here. I am quite satisfied that my colleague from Luzerne, Mr. Hermansen who originally raised the question, was within his rights. We had no idea of antagonizing the sponsor of any of these repeal measures. The explanation that has been given by the gentleman is almost sufficient, and if we can be guaranteed that the ambulance at the mines will be kept in the way that the law says they shall be kept, we will raise no objection, but we do reiterate the statement of last week that the owners and operators are at fault in using the ambulances for jitney busses, for mail wagons and for truck wagons.

On the question recurring,

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 870, entitled:

An Act to amend sections nine and eighteen of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (P. L. 561) entitled "An act to provide for the selection of jurors to serve in the several courts criminal and civil of counties of the second class and defining the qualifications of such jurors providing for the organization of a commission for the selection of jurors in such counties prescribing its powers and duties and authorizing it to investigate as to the qualifications of prospective jurors imposing the expense of maintaining and operating said commission upon said counties and requiring the county commissioners to provide suitable quarters equipment and supplies authorizing the employment of the necessary clerks and other employes and providing for a salary board composed of the commission the county commissioners and the controller of said counties to fix the number and compensation of such employes requiring county officers and boards to furnish information to said commission concerning taxables resident in said county as to their eligibility for jury service repealing inconsistent legislation and prescribing punishment for the violation hereof" providing for the securing of additional information concerning qualified jurors and the dissemination thereof,

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am just a new man here, but I have been led to believe that this is a miracle. I believe this bill, if you will turn to it, and the amendments which have been offered on line 26 on Page 3, gives the jury commissioners the right to inquire as to your religion and lodge affiliations and so forth. I don't believe in America that anybody is entitled to give that information unless they see fit and I don't think we should legislate anything like that into our laws and I ask you to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, answering the request of the gentleman from Allegheny that you vote "no," this bill substantially amends the act to give an opportunity to the members of the Allegheny County Bar, when the jury commissioners have investigated the jurors who serve on the panels, the benefit of any information that they may receive, to any member of the Bar who calls upon the jury commissioners for this information. It is optional now with the jury commissioners whether they desire to give this information. This bill makes it compulsory upon the jury commissioners to give that information to the members of the Bar. If they have this information the gentleman who requests it rreceives it, but it is not obligatory upon anybody's part to ask for any qualifications of any juror. But if the commissioners have this information the members of the Bar are entitled to get it. I think this is a fair bill and ask you to vote for it.

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Marcus.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FRANK D. Evans. Are members of the bar the only ones that can procure this information?

Mr. MARCUS. That is right.

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. Are the amendents as shown in the heavy lines of this bill pertaining to the fraternal affiliations, religion, age in every jury bill in Allegheny County, has that been the habit heretofore?

Mr. MARCUS. Always has been.

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is news to me that it has been the custom for the jury commissioners to procure this information. I desire to inform you all that I am trying to take an unbiased point of view in this matter because I belong to no fraternal or patriotic organizations whatever. The only organization I belong to is the church and none other. That may seem rather surprising because of my acquaintance in the political field but that is the truth. I have been accused various times or belonging of various organizations but I belong to none. I don't think a man should be interrogated as to his personal affiliations. I hope that the bill is voted down.

Shall the bill pass finally?

SENATE.

TUESDAY, March 15, 1927.

The Senate met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Arthur H. James) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. W. Hall, offered the following prayer:

We thank Thee, our Father, for this beautiful morning. We thank Thee for the preservation of our lives since we last met last week. Many strange and terrible things have happened. Great and good men have gone down the valley never to return. But we are here, the living monuments of Thy tender mercy. We can do nothing without Thee. Thou art our Creator. Help us to understand ourselves. Help us to understand Thee. Help us to comprehend the times. Lead us by Thy spirit. Instruct us by Thy Word, that we may attain to the fullness of ideal manhood,—perfect in power, large in capacity, strong in energy, greatest in love and kindness. May we labor to this end until the closing day shall come. May we find that it is not day but it is only the night before the everlasting morning.

We ask Thee at this time to bless our colleague, the Sergeant-at-Arms in the hospital. We thank Thee for the indications of recovery. May the blessing of God be upon him; and all his suffering may the physician bring the remedy that Thou dost give, that he may be restored to health and strength.

Bless the presiding officer, the Governor of the State, all men everywhere; and we will give Thee the praise, in the name of Christ, our Redeemer. Amen.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with the information that the House passed it without amendment.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I understand that House Bill No. 1182 has not been messaged to the Senate but is still in the House. I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1182 on page 10 of the calendar for Monday, March 14th, 1927, entitled:

An Act to amend section five hundred and fifty-four of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twelve (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" limiting the commissions and compensation of tax collectors in districts of the second third and fourth classes passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if you will turn to your calendar of yesterday on page 10, House Bill No. 1182, you will see that that is a bill that restricts the commissions to be received by tax collectors collecting school taxes in certain school districts. I think it passed the House last night when the House was somewhat inattentive and there were only a few in the House that voted against it . I find there is quite a sentiment against it at the present time and that is the reason I am moving to reconsider. In other words, that means a limit of $4,000.00 to a tax collector. In one township in Delaware County our tax collector collects for school purposes $690,000.00. His bond amounts to almost $4,000.00 and his expenses of his office and his bond together amount to more than $4,000.00. He has all those expenses to pay. I am sure in districts of that kind, where a large amount of money is collected, which is true in many first class districts, they could not get anyto collect their taxes for that amount. On theother hand, at the present time the school board has the right to fix the commission for which their tax collectors collect taxes. There is little or no trouble so far as these tax collectors for school purposes are concerned because the school board fixes the the amount of the commission, that is, the local school board, and they are the people vitally interested in the collection of the taxes. They are the people who know what they can pay. They know the hardships the tax collector has in order to perform his duties and they pay what is necessary as a commission and at the present time the law gives the local school board the right to fix that commission, less than five per cent. Five per cent is the maximum they can pay. We should leave that to the local school board. The local school board does not have much right to act independently any more. This is one of the things they should have the right to do. I hope, therefore, you will all vote to reconsider this bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to .

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1182 be placed upon the postponed calendar.
